Our Weekly Missionary Focus

Joel and Baily Easling are our new Awana missionaries.

Each of us had the privilege of attending Awana all the way through our high school years. Seeing the value of Awana through our own experiences, we wanted to continue the legacy of child discipleship. We've served in leadership roles since 2006 seeking to make a difference in the generations to come. As God would have it, we met through (Awana) camp and eventually married in 2013. Since 2017, we have been pursuing God's calling on our lives to be next generation impactors as Awana Missionaries and look forward to being a part of what He is doing through Awana clubs and the local church.

THE REAL STRENGTH

Since these early Christians were living in uncertain times, he wrote to encourage them and remind them of their (and our) real strength. The world is not permanent, nor stable. Even in our own time as we see and feel the uncertainty of coronavirus concerns. John wants to reassure believers and remind us where our influence should not come from.

I. Assurance in _____ times

_____ Assurance

Assurance to spiritual _____

Assurance to spiritual _____

II. The Love God _____

The command (not to _____ the _____)

Reasons believers are not to _____ the world

Because of _____ believers are

Because of _____ the world _____

Because of _____ the world is _____

John warned that in order to love and _____ to God, we must stop acting from the motives that _____
the world's _____ system.
