Missionary Update

Tim and Sharon Simmonds serving with Radius International: “We are so thankful that despite the pandemic, we have been able to continue operating classes, even with on and off partial quarantines, and just one whole-campus quarantine for a couple of weeks! This group of cross-cultural workers have only 3 more months before graduating. While some of them have decided on sending organizations, team members to serve with, and regions to serve in, many are still in that decision-making process. We have had some good news about the Mamusi churches who we worked with during the 14 years we spent in Papua New Guinea. We are grateful to the Lord for His work among the Mamusi churches, and thankful for our coworkers who are working directly with our Mamusi churches and leaders, as well as many other indigenous Bible-believing churches in the wider area, to encourage them and challenge them to work more with each other to spur each other on to maturity. We are amazed at how God continues to provide for us in so many different ways. We praise God for demonstrating His faithfulness through the faithfulness of His people! Thank you for your prayers and support!
