Missionary Update

Joel and Baily Easling serving with Awana: Leading up to Zoey being born, we did as much as we could to prepare and take care of tasks ahead of time. Depending on how much time I (Joel) was going to take off with the family, we didn't want to get too far behind on the work that still needs to be done. We are so grateful for Awana and our supervisors who allowed us to plan for 4 weeks off. At first I thought it would be plenty of time to care for the family, help with the kids' transition to having a baby around, and even get a few projects completed around the house. Well, as God would have it, after 18+ hours of labor we went from having a home birth to needing a C-section to get Zoey out. There was no emergency; however, for some reason, Zoey just wouldn't come down. Thanks to our midwife's suggestion, the doctors' precision, and the Lord's guidance, both Baily and Zoey are healthy and Baily has recovered well. Everyone in the family loves our new addition and we are working out all the kinks of having one more mouth to feed and another kiddo who needs our love and care. God is good!
