Missionary Update

Joan Justiniano serving with Encompass in the USA & Japan:

On June 12, I will be leading a team of three interns to Japan for three weeks, introducing them to missions in Japan and walking them through cross-cultural training. After they return to the States I will be in Tokyo reconnecting with people from evangelical Bible studies and church members. I will then head to Nagano to prepare for the annual cycling outreach weekend, and will be reconnecting with unsaved friends in the area, as well as hosting teammates and church members during that month. Thank you for praying for God to be glorified in every aspect of the trip.
