Missionary Update

Tim & Sharon Simmonds: Our current ministry role in the International Ministries Office involves assisting with developing and coordinating culture and language learning resources for pioneer cross-cultural church planters in their God-given quest to reach unreached people groups. Whether it is for church planters' pre-field training at one of the 10 training centers around the world conducted by Global Partners, or for their on-field equipping in their chosen host country's culture and language, or in their target people group culture and language acquisition process, our desire is to provide consistent, relevant, and timely resources, to enhance the effectiveness of the Global Partners church planting teams.
