Mission Update

Goldendale Pregnancy Resource Center: is committed to serving women, partners, and families in any pregnancy or parenting situation; to encouraging parents spiritually, emotionally, and physically; and to facilitating healing for women who have experienced an abortion. The GPRC has been serving the local community since 1988. We are supported by local individuals and businesses, and the prayers, time, and financial donations of the various Christian faith communities of Klickitat County. Our services are all free, private, and confidential.
